

Candidates to Speak to Civic Group Monday

Members of the South Torrance Civic Improvement Assn. will hear candidates for election to the city council at their regular meeting next Monday evening at 7:30 at the Howard Wood School Cafeteria, 235th and Arlington Ave.

Candidates now scheduled to appear include George Vico, Paul Albright, and John Barton. A business meeting will follow with a discussion of the new water lines highlighting the agenda. Water Superintendent Angus McVicar will be present to answer questions about the lines which are expected to be in operation in about three months.

TB ON THE WANE
A long-time study conducted jointly by the American Cancer Society and the Philadelphia Tuberculosis and Health Assn. indicates that the incidence of lung cancer now is twice as great among middle aged men as tuberculosis. TB, once a leading killer, can be cured or controlled in most cases whereas cancer cannot.

Local Union President at Labor Session

William G. Gibson, president of the Communications Workers of America Local 9506, recently participated in the third annual liberal arts for labor conference at Lake Arrowhead, Gibson, who resides at 4438 Newton St., has been associated with the local since 1950.

The conference was designed to promote a "better relationship between labor, the public, and management," officials said. It was held under the direction of the UCLA department of liberal arts.

Obituaries

HOWARD L. WOODWARD

Funeral services for Howard Lockwood Woodward, 54, of 1636 1/2 W. 216th St., were held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. John Penner, chaplain at Harbor General Hospital, officiating.

Mr. Woodward, who has resided here for 37 years, died March 20. He was a native of Arizona. Before his death, he had been employed for 36 years at the Shell Oil Co., where he was the shipping foreman.

He is survived by his widow, Eleanor; a son, Richard Davis; three brothers, Major B. Woodward and P. H. Woodward of Torrance and E. B. Woodward of Las Vegas; a sister, Margaret Redding of San Diego, and one grandchild. Burial will be in Roosevelt Cemetery.

CHESTER L. NORRIS

Funeral services for Chester Loren Norris, 51, of 1152 W. Fiat, were held at the A. M. Gamby Mortuary Chapel in Lomita Saturday with the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of Torrance officiating. Mr. Norris, a resident of the area for 14 years, was a native of Hennesey, Okla.

He is survived by his widow, Edith; two sons, Daniel of Bellflower and Chester of Torrance; a daughter, Eileen Ramos of Lawndale; two grandchildren; his mother, Mabel Bryant of Torrance; and two sisters, Mrs. Nellie Denman of Torrance and Mrs. Melva Miller of North Hollywood.
